

Please keep the do not call list as is in place. Do not change it or allow it to be change. Before this do not call list came into place I was allway telling someone from some company to dont not call me again and what part of NO dont you understand. This do not call list is work just fine, please do not change anything with it. Its not broken so please just leave it alone.